

NOTICE OF INTENT TO ACT UPON A REGULATION

Notice of Workshop and Hearing for the Adoption, Amendment or Repeal of Regulations Of The State of Nevada Contractors' Board

The State of Nevada Contractors' Board ("Board") will hold a workshop and public hearing on Wednesday, December 3, 2003. The workshop will begin at 2:00 p.m. and the hearing will commence immediately following the workshop. The workshop and hearing will be video-conferenced between the Board's Henderson Office located at 2310 Corporate Circle, Suite 200, Henderson, Nevada 89074 and the Reno Office located at 9670 Gateway Drive, Reno, Nevada 89521. The purpose of the workshop and hearing is to receive comments from all interested persons regarding the adoption, amendment or repeal of regulations that pertain to Chapter 624 of the Nevada Administrative Code.

The following information is provided pursuant to the requirements of NRS 233B.060 and 233B.0603:

1. The need for and purpose of the proposed regulation or amendment.

The purpose of the proposed regulation is to amend Chapter 624 of the Nevada Administrative Code to clarify certain provisions regarding the residential recovery fund and the disciplinary hearing process.

2. Either the terms or the substance of the regulations to be adopted, amended or repealed or a description of the subjects and issues involved.

The proposed regulation clarifies the manner in which residential recovery fund claims must be completed and changes certain provisions of the rules of practice for disciplinary matters before the Board. A copy of the proposed regulation may be obtained by writing to the Board's offices at 9670 Gateway Drive, Reno, Nevada 89521.

3. The estimated economic effect of this proposed regulation on the business which it is to regulate and on the public.

(a) Adverse and beneficial effects.

There should be minimal economic impact on the industry.

(b) Both immediate and long-term effects.

Minimal.

4. The estimated cost to the Agency for enforcement of the proposed regulation.

Minimal.

5. A description of and citation to any regulations of other state or local governmental agencies which the proposed regulation overlaps or duplicates and a statement explaining why the duplication or overlapping is necessary.

The proposed regulation does not overlap or duplicate any regulation of other state or local governmental entities.

6. If the regulation is required pursuant to federal law, a citation and description of the federal law.

Does not apply.

7. If the regulation includes provisions which are more stringent than a federal regulation that regulates the same activity, a summary of such provisions.
Does not apply.
8. Whether proposed regulation establishes a new fee or increases an existing fee.
Does not apply.

Persons wishing to comment upon the proposed action of the Board may appear at the scheduled public workshop and hearing or may address their comments, data, views or arguments, in written form to the Executive Officer of the Nevada State Contractors' Board, 2310 Corporate Circle, Suite 200, Henderson, Nevada 89074 or in Reno at 9670 Gateway Drive, Suite 100, Reno, Nevada 89521. Written submissions must be received by the Board on or before Wednesday, November 26, 2003. If no person who is directly affected by the proposed action appears to request time to make an oral presentation, the Board may proceed immediately to act upon any written submissions.

A copy of this notice and the regulations to be adopted, amended or repealed will be on file at the State Library, 100 Stewart Street, Carson City, Nevada, for inspection by members of the public during business hours. Additional copies of the notices and the regulation to be adopted will be available at the State Contractors' Board, 2310 Corporate Circle, Suite 200, Henderson, Nevada 89074 and 9670 Gateway Drive, Suite 100, Reno, Nevada 89521. In all counties in which an office of the Board is not maintained, a copy of this notice and the text of the proposed regulation will also be available for public inspection and copying at the main public library during business hours. This notice and the text of the proposed regulation will be available in the State of Nevada Register of Administrative Regulations which is prepared and published monthly by the Legislative Counsel Bureau pursuant to NRS 233B.0653, and on the Internet at <http://www.leg.state.nv.us>. Copies of this notice and the proposed regulation will also be mailed to members of the public upon request. A reasonable fee may be charged for copies if it is deemed necessary.

Upon adoption of any regulation, the Board, if requested to do so by an interested person, either before adoption or within 30 days thereafter, shall issue a concise statement of the principal reasons for and against its adoption and incorporate therein its reason for overruling the consideration urged against its adoption.

This notice has been mailed to all persons on the agency's mailing list of administrative regulations and posted at the following locations:

(b) The name, address, license number and telephone number, if known, of the accused residential contractor;

(c) A description of:

(1) The facts concerning the alleged failure by the accused residential contractor to perform qualified services adequately; and

(2) The nature and extent of the claimed loss;

(d) The date on which, or the period during which, the alleged loss occurred;

(e) A copy of the original contract and all change orders, credits, refunds or discounts.

(f) Copies of the front and back of all cancelled checks supporting the claim, payable to the contractor, sub-contractor or supplier.

(g) Proof of all cash payments supporting the claim, with signed receipts from the contractor, sub-contractor or supplier if appropriate. [Copies of all paid cash receipts]

(h) Copies of Perfected Liens if appropriate

2. The Executive Officer or designee may request additional information or documentation to support the claim.

3. The Board will assist the claimants in obtaining the appropriate documents through the issuance of subpoenas if appropriate and requested by the claimant.

4. Claimants may be required to submit itemized bids from licensed Nevada Contractors for estimates to complete repairs. The estimates must only be for the repair or replacement of the original work and not for enhancements, additional improvements or upgrades of services or materials.

5. Claims which are received and include false or altered documents or documents, billings, receipts or estimates, found to include enhancements, upgrades for services, or materials or improvements, or work or repairs outside the scope of the original contract will result in the claim being automatically denied by the Executive Officer or designee and it may not be considered by the Board or the Committee.

[e) Itemized bids from three licensed residential contractors, not including the accused residential contractor, to repair or otherwise fix the problem created by the alleged failure of the accused residential contractor to perform qualified services adequately.]

[f) Documents relating to the underlying claim, including, without limitation, contracts between the claimant and the accused residential contractor, copies of the front and back of canceled checks, paid receipts and escrow settlement accounts, if any;]

[g) Proof of payment on the underlying claim from other sources, including, without limitation, payment from bonds, sureties, guarantees, warranties, letters of credit or policies of insurance;]

[h) Certified copies of all writs of execution, garnishment or attachment or of any other writ designed to enforce any judgment of the court in favor of the claimant against the accused residential contractor, and proof of all efforts, and inability resulting therefrom, to collect the judgment or order;]

[i) A statement detailing the efforts made by the claimant to recover the loss from the accused residential contractor, the estate of the accused residential contractor or a third party; and]

[j) Any other information requested by the executive officer.]

6. The Board may not approve a payment from the Residential Recovery Fund until full and complete documentation has been provided by the claimant, as required by the Executive Officer or designee.

7. The Board shall advise the claimant by certified mail, the requirements of NRS 624.500(4) are being tolled, awaiting receipt of additional documents from the claimant, if the claim cannot be investigated and processed within 6 months of receipt of the claim. The letter shall include the identification of those specific documents which are being requested and provide a timeframe for producing the requested documents.

8. If the claimant cannot provide adequate documentation to support the claim within 6 months of filing the claim, the claim will be closed and may be re-opened upon receipt of the requested documents for consideration by the Board.

9. The board will not approve [process] a complaint seeking recovery until 30 []days after the date on which the civil judgment was issued by the court or the final decision and order was issued by the board or its designee, as appropriate.

10. If after a complaint seeking recovery is filed, any information in the complaint changes, the claimant shall forthwith notify the board of the change.

(Added to NAC by Contractors' Bd. by R068 01, eff. 11 8 2001)

NAC 624.755 Procedure for processing: Notice to accused contractor; investigation; hearing. (NRS 624.560)

1. Upon receiving a complaint seeking recovery, the staff of the board shall:

(a) Send a copy of the complaint seeking recovery, by certified mail to the address of record to the accused residential contractor named in the complaint seeking recovery; and

(b) Commence an investigation into the facts alleged in the complaint seeking recovery.

2. When necessary, the chairman of the board may appoint a committee to hear complaints seeking recovery filed with the board or appoint a specific committee to hear a specific complaint seeking recovery. Such a committee will act as the designee of the board.

3. A hearing on a complaint seeking recovery before the board or an appointed committee is informal, and the board or appointed committee will consider all relevant testimony and evidence presented. The written report of the results of the investigation conducted by the staff must be made a part of the record of the hearing.

4. A claimant or an accused residential contractor:

(a) May appear before the board or appointed committee to present evidence and arguments in support or defense of a claim.

(b) Any residential contractor appearing before the board and presenting evidence or arguments in defense of the claim, must provided the board staff the documents, evidence or exhibits to be presented to the board, ten (10) days in advance of the hearing date.

(c) The board shall not consider any documents, evidence or exhibits which are not presented to the board, ten (10) days in advance of the hearing date.

(d) Shall appear before the board or appointed committee to present evidence and arguments in support or defense of a claim upon the request of any member of the board or appointed committee.

5. Complaints seeking recovery which are complete will be investigated[processed]in the order in which the complaints are received.

(Added to NAC by Contractors' Bd. by R068 01, eff. 11 8 2001)

NAC 624.760 Determination; final order. (NRS 624.560)

1. In making its determination on a complaint, the board or appointed committee will consider all matters relevant to the complaint seeking recovery, including, without limitation:

(a) The financial condition of the recovery fund;

(b) The nature of the complaint seeking recovery and the amount of money sought to be recovered by the claimant; and

(c) If there is more than one claimant, the equitable division of available money from the recovery fund among the claimants.

2. The board or appointed committee will authorize payment of the complaint seeking recovery in full or in part, or deny the claim in full or in part, by entry of a final order.

(Added to NAC by Contractors' Bd. by R068 01, eff. 11 8 2001)

NAC 624.765 Claimant's agreement with board. (NRS 624.560) As a condition of receiving payment from the recovery fund, a claimant must enter into an agreement with the board pursuant to which the board is subrogated to the rights of the claimant against the accused residential contractor, the estate of the accused residential contractor or a third party for an amount equal to the amount of money paid from the recovery fund to the claimant plus the amount of all costs incurred by the board in recovering that amount of money from the accused residential contractor, the estate of the accused residential contractor or the third party. The agreement must provide that the claimant will cooperate with the board in any proceeding commenced to recover such money from the accused residential contractor, the estate of the accused residential contractor or the third party.

(Added to NAC by Contractors' Bd. by R068 01, eff. 11 8 2001)

NAC 624.770 Procedure upon final order approving payment. (NRS 624.560)

1. If the board or appointed committee issues a final order approving in full or in part a complaint seeking recovery, the board or appointed committee will forward:

(a) A copy of the final order approving the complaint seeking recovery to the accounting office of the board; and

(b) A copy of the complaint seeking recovery and the final order to the office of the attorney general so that the attorney general may commence efforts to enforce any subrogation claims against the accused residential contractor.

2. The accounting office of the board shall not commence procedures for the disbursement of money pursuant to a final order approving a complaint seeking recovery until 30 [45] days after the date on which the board or appointed committee issued the final order.

NAC 624.713 Notice of contemplated action: Contents; response. (NRS 624.100, 624.335)

1. A notice that the board provides to a licensee pursuant to NAC 624.7256 will include:

(a) A copy of the complaint;

(b) The date by which the licensee is required to submit an answer or responsive pleading and any supporting documents to the board;

(c) A statement that the licensee is entitled to a hearing only if he complies with the provisions set forth in paragraph (b); and

(d) A statement that the failure of the licensee to comply with the provisions of subsection 2 may cause the board to enter a default order against the licensee.

2. The answer required by paragraph (b) of subsection 1 must be in writing, signed by the respondent or his representative, and include a specific response to each allegation in the complaint. The response must admit or deny the allegation, or state that the respondent has insufficient information to admit or deny the allegation.

(Added to NAC by Contractors' Bd. by R081 01, eff. 11 8 2001; A by R014 02, 7 2 2002)

NAC 624.716 Notice of contemplated action: Hearing; default order; request for reconsideration. (NRS 624.100)

1. If a licensee receives a notice from the board pursuant to NAC 624.7256, the licensee is entitled to a hearing only if he complies with the provisions of paragraph (b) of subsection 1 of NAC 624.713. If the licensee fails to comply with those provisions, the board will hold a hearing to determine whether it will enter a default order against the licensee.

2. The board may consider at the hearing:

(a) The complaint and any amended complaints provided to the licensee;

(b) Any notices provided to the licensee pursuant to NAC 624.7256;

(c) Any communication between the board and the licensee; and

(d) Any other evidence relating to the allegations set forth in the complaint or amended complaints.

3. The board may:

(a) Include evidence presented at the hearing in its findings of fact and conclusions of law; and

(b) Enter a default order against the licensee.

4. If the board enters a default order against the licensee, the board will:

(a) Send to the licensee by certified mail, return receipt requested, a copy of the default order, including any findings of fact and conclusions of law, not later than 10 days after the board enters its order; and

(b) Take such disciplinary action against the licensee as it deems appropriate.

5. A licensee against whom a default order is entered may submit to the board a written request for reconsideration of the order not later than 15 days after he receives a copy of the order. The written request must set forth the reasons for reconsideration by the board.

6. The Executive Officer will review the request to determine whether there is good cause for reconsideration of the order. If the Executive Officer determines that good cause for reconsideration exists, the board will schedule a hearing and notify the licensee, in writing, of the time and place of the hearing.

(Added to NAC by Contractors' Bd. by R081 01, eff. 11 8 2001; A by R014 02, 7 2 2002)

6. Corrective actions, if any, ordered against the licensee or applicant;
7. Administrative fines, if any, to be assessed against the licensee or applicant;
8. The reimbursement costs, if any, which the licensee or applicant is ordered to pay to cover the costs of any investigation;
9. The date by which the licensee or applicant must complete any corrective actions ordered;
10. The date by which the licensee or applicant must pay any administrative fines or reimbursement of investigative costs;
11. A description of the manner in which the licensee or applicant may contest the citation, including, without limitation, the period during which the licensee or applicant may contest the citation and the consequences of failing to contest the citation timely;
12. The signature of the person on whom the citation is served;
13. The signature of the investigator of the board who conducted the investigation against the licensee or applicant;
14. The signature of the supervisor of that investigator;
15. The signature of the executive officer or his designee; and
16. Any other information required by the board.

(Added to NAC by Contractors' Bd. by R067 01, eff. 12 17 2001)

NAC 624.7253 Liberal construction of provisions governing practices in contested cases; deviation from provisions. (NRS 624.100)

1. The provisions of NAC 624.6975 to 624.7296, inclusive, govern practices in any contested case before the board and the board will liberally construe those provisions to determine all matters before the board in a just, speedy and economical manner.
2. The board may allow a deviation from the provisions of NAC 624.6975 to 624.7296, inclusive, if the board determines that the deviation would not have a material adverse effect on the substantial interests of the parties and good cause for the deviation exists. If the board allows such a deviation, it will include in the record the deviation and the reasons for the deviation.

(Added to NAC by Contractors' Bd. by R014 02, eff. 7 2 2002)

NAC 624.7256 Time and place of hearing; notice; time for objection. (NRS 624.100)

1. The board will:

(a) Set the date, time and place of a hearing for a contested case; and

(b) At least 21 days before the hearing, send a copy of the complaint and notice of hearing by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the respondent at the address on file with the board, or by personal service in the manner provided in NRS for service in civil actions. The complaint and notice of hearing may be included in the same document. A proof of service must be attached to the original of any document that is served by mail.

2. There is a rebuttable presumption that a complaint and notice of hearing has been received by a respondent 10 days after the date the complaint and notice of hearing is deposited with the United States Postal System.

3. An objection that any notice required by NAC 624.6975 to 624.7296, inclusive, was not provided in the manner set forth in those provisions will be deemed waived unless the objection is raised by the respondent before the introduction of any evidence into the record at a hearing of the board.

(Added to NAC by Contractors' Bd. by R014 02, eff. 7 2 2002)

NAC 624.7259 Addition or dismissal of cause for disciplinary action; amendment or withdrawal of complaint by board. (NRS 624.100)

1. The executive officer of the board may add or dismiss a cause for disciplinary action against a respondent before the board holds a hearing on that cause of action.

2. The board or Executive Officer may amend a complaint at any time. Notice of an amended complaint must be given in the same manner as a notice of an original complaint. The board will grant a continuance if an amendment materially alters the complaint in such a way that the respondent will be unable to prepare his case in a timely manner.

3. The executive officer of the board may withdraw a complaint at any time before the board holds a hearing on the complaint. After the hearing is commenced, only the board may withdraw a complaint.

(Added to NAC by Contractors' Bd. by R014 02, eff. 7 2 2002)

NAC 624.7263 Request for continuance; granting of continuance. (NRS 624.100)

1. A respondent or his representative may request a continuance of a hearing upon a showing of good cause. A request for a continuance must be submitted to the executive officer of the board in writing on a form prescribed by the board. The request must be received by the executive officer at least 10 days before the hearing.

2. A request for a continuance must specify the reasons constituting good cause for granting the continuance. A request for a continuance that is received less than 10 days before the hearing must indicate that the request is the result of an emergency which arose less than 10 days before the hearing.

3. The executive officer of the board may grant a continuance before a hearing is held. The board may grant a continuance at any time after the hearing is commenced.

(Added to NAC by Contractors' Bd. by R014 02, eff. 7 2 2002)

NAC 624.7266 Form of papers submitted to board. (NRS 624.100) All papers submitted to the board by a party in a contested case must be typewritten on one side only, on white paper that is 8 1/2 by 11 inches in size. The first page of each document must include the names of the parties in the contested case and the number, if any, assigned to the case by the board.

(Added to NAC by Contractors' Bd. by R014 02, eff. 7 2 2002)

NAC 624.7269 Consolidation of contested cases. (NRS 624.100) The board may consolidate two or more contested cases if the board determines that the issues are substantially similar and the interests of the parties will not be prejudiced by the consolidation. The presiding officer of the hearing will determine the order of procedure at a consolidated hearing.

(Added to NAC by Contractors' Bd. by R014 02, eff. 7 2 2002)

NAC 624.7273 Motions: Contents; opposition; written reply; decision by board. (NRS 624.100)

1. A motion, unless made at a hearing, must be made in writing.

2. A written motion must set forth the nature of the relief requested and the grounds for the relief.

3. A party, except the Board who wishes to oppose a motion must serve and file a written response to the motion not later than 10 days after his receipt of the motion.

4. The moving party may serve and file a written reply only if an opposition to the motion has been served and filed.

5. The board may issue a decision on a motion without oral argument.

(Added to NAC by Contractors' Bd. by R014 02, eff. 7 2 2002)

NAC 624.7276 Subpoenas: Application; issuance and service. (NRS 624.100)

1. A party may apply to the board for the issuance of a subpoena pursuant to NRS 624.170. An application for the issuance of a subpoena must:

(a) Be submitted in writing;

(b) Include a statement of the facts that demonstrate the reasons why the subpoena is necessary; and

(c) Be received by the board at least 10 days before the hearing for which the subpoena is issued.

2. If the board issues a subpoena, the party who requests the subpoena shall:

(a) Serve a copy of the subpoena on all other parties in the manner prescribed by Rule 45(c) of the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure;

(b) File proof of such service with the board; and

(c) Pay the costs related to the issuance and service of the subpoena. The board may require payment of the costs before the issuance of the subpoena.

(Added to NAC by Contractors' Bd. by R014 02, eff. 7 2 2002)

NAC 624.7279 Representation of parties; rules of conduct; provision of information to attorney; withdrawal of attorney. (NRS 624.100)

1. Any party who appears at a hearing may represent himself or may be represented by an attorney licensed to practice law in this state.

2. Each person who appears at a hearing shall comply with the standards of ethical and courteous conduct required in the courts of this state. If a person fails to comply with those standards of conduct, the board may:

(a) Exclude the person or his representative from the hearing; or

(b) Terminate the hearing.

3. If a party is represented by an attorney, the board will provide to the attorney any notice, document or other paper that the board is required to provide to the party.

4. The Respondent shall provide the board staff, ten (10) calendar days before hearing, any and all documents to be presented as evidence or exhibits at the hearing
5. The Respondent shall provide the Board's staff at least ten (10) calendar days before the hearing with copies of all documents which the respondent intends to introduce as evidence at the hearing.
6. The Board may, in its sole discretion, refuse to consider any documents or exhibits which have not been previously provided to the Board's staff at least ten (10) calendar days in advance of the hearing.

7... An attorney may withdraw from representing a party if he provides written notice of his withdrawal to the board and the party whom he represented.

NAC 624.7293 Petition for rehearing or reconsideration. (NRS 624.100) Except as otherwise provided by law:

1. A petition for a rehearing or reconsideration of a decision issued by the board must be served on all parties not later than 15 calendar days after the date of service of a copy of the decision. The petition must state the specific grounds upon which relief is requested.

2. Any responses to a petition must be served not later than 15 calendar days after the receipt of the petition.

3. If a respondent submits a petition for reconsideration of the Board's decision, the Executive Officer will grant or deny the petition.

4. If a respondent submits a petition for a rehearing and wishes to present new evidence, the respondent must provide to the board a statement setting forth the reasons for his failure to introduce the new evidence at the previous hearing and a detailed description of the new evidence proposed to be introduced.

5. The Executive Officer is designated to review a petition for a rehearing or reconsideration. A decision concerning the petition will be made not later than 15 calendar days after the petition is filed with the board. If a new hearing is ordered, the decision concerning the petition will include the time, date and place of the hearing and the reasons for ordering a new hearing.

6. The Executive Officer will review the petition to determine whether there is good cause for a rehearing or reconsideration of its decision. If the Executive Officer determines that good cause for a rehearing exists, the board will schedule a hearing and notify the respondent, in writing, of the time, date and place of the hearing.
7. The rehearing or reconsideration shall be held within ninety (90) days from the date of approval by the Executive Officer
- 8.. The Executive Officer will provide notice of its order approving or denying the petition to all parties at least 5 days before the expiration of the period for filing a petition for judicial review.
- .9 If a rehearing is conducted, the board may require the respondent to pay the costs of the rehearing.
