CONTRACTORS BOARD TAKES DISCIPLINARY ACTION AGAINST FOUR CONTRACTORS

(Reno, NV) - At its meeting on January 7, 2004, the Nevada State Contractors Board adjudicated cases against four (4) licensed contractors.

Robert Quinn, license number 54046 (Residential and Small Commercial) based out of Reno, Nevada was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for substandard workmanship, willful departure from plans or specifications; and failure to establish financial responsibility. The Board revoked the license of Robert Quinn.

Bryson Construction, license number 33530 (Residential and Small Commercial) based out of Reno, Nevada was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for substandard workmanship; failure to establish financial responsibility; and failure to pay for materials or services.

Ray Lavoie Construction license number 29057 (Residential and Small Commercial) and Fernley Roofing, and 19233 (Roofing and Siding) based out of Fernley, Nevada were found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for entering into a contract with an unlicensed person. A permanent letter of reprimand was placed into the licensee's file.

Acme Systems, license number 31011 (Residential and Small Commercial) and 31594 (Electrical) based out of Reno, Nevada was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for willful disregard of plans or specifications; failure to comply with a written request of the Board; failure to keep records and maintain bond; substandard workmanship; and bidding in excess of established license limit. The Board suspended the license of Acme Systems.

The Nevada State Contractors Board is committed to protecting the public's health, safety, and welfare through licensing and regulation of the construction industry. Under Nevada Revised Statutes, a licensee is subject to disciplinary action by the Board for failure to comply with the requirements of the laws or regulations governing contractors. Violations may result in Board action against the contractor's license. The State Contractors Board has the power to regulate contractors and discipline licensees who violate NRS 624. Disciplinary action may consist of a fine of up to $10,000 per offense, order corrective action, suspension, revocation or other action.

The Board will convene next in Henderson, NV on January 27, 2004.
