Kirk Edward Butolph Added To NSCB'S Ten Most Wanted

Kirk Butolph

Kirk Edward Butolph, dba Nevada Cabinet Refacing, has been added to the Nevada State Contractors Board's Ten Most Wanted.

Butolph has two felony warrants issued on him from Second Judicial District Court in Reno and Justice Court of Sparks Township for contracting without a license. Butolph allegedly entered into multiple contracts with two homeowners for applied cabinet laminate and wood veneer projects. He also allegedly entered into a contract for the installation of a wooden floor. Butolph failed to complete all the projects.

“Unlicensed contractors can cost consumers thousands of dollars. They carry no insurance, are not bonded and have not met any standards of the trade they may be performing,” stated Margi Grein, Executive Officer of the Nevada State Contractors Board. “It is important for consumers to check the license status of any company before hiring them at our website: www.nscb.state.nv.us .”

The Special Investigations Unit of the Nevada State Contractors Board is hard at work tracking and citing offenders and informing the public of their rights and responsibilities. To assist in prosecuting illegal contracting, the Nevada State Contractors Board has launched an online “Ten Most Wanted.” Individuals listed on the Ten Most Wanted website pages are those who have outstanding arrest warrants for unlicensed contracting activity.

Contractors and members of the public can go online at: www.nscb.state.nv.us and click on “Ten Most Wanted” to review suspects’ profiles. The website includes contact numbers to provide information about the individuals profiled.

The person(s) listed on the Nevada State Contractors Board's Ten Most Wanted website and in press releases have not been convicted of the charges and are presumed innocent.
