NEVADA STATE CONTRACTORS BOARD ANNOUNCES NEW PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICER

LAS VEGAS, Nev. – The Nevada State Contractors Board (NSCB) is pleased to announce the new hire of Jennifer Turner as the new Public Information Officer effective June 6. Turner will oversee all media relations and public affairs responsibilities for NSCB’s Henderson and Reno offices.

Turner comes to the position with experience in crisis communications, issue management, media response, strategic planning, and project management. In her new role she will be coordinating media and public outreach opportunities, strengthening NSCB’s relationships with key stakeholders, and directing all internal and external communications activities.

“The Nevada State Contractors board members and staff welcome Jennifer to the NSCB team,” stated NSCB Executive Officer Margi Grein. “We look forward to working with her on ways to enhance our efforts to engage our partners in raising awareness of consumer protections and the importance of contractor licensure.”

Turner obtained a bachelor’s degree from California State University, Sacramento in 2006. Her previous experience included three years at the California Department of Mental Health, most recently serving as the department’s acting director of external affairs and communications. She also brings with her legislative experience, working four years in the California State Assembly for former Republican Leader Kevin McCarthy and the Assembly Republican Office of Policy in both a legislative aide and associate consultant capacity.
