BOARD TAKES DISCIPLINARY ACTION AGAINST TWO CONTRACTORS

(Reno, NV) – At its meeting on February 10-11, 2003, the Nevada State Contractors Board adjudicated cases against two (2) licensed contractors.

Excel Concrete, license number 51387 (Concrete Contracting) based out of Carson City, Nevada was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for substandard workmanship; failure to comply with a notice to correct; failure to provide required disclosures; failure to include license number and monetary limit on a contract or proposal; and failure to report to the Board a change in address or personnel. The Board revoked the license of Excel Concrete.

S & N Builders, license number 37462 (Concrete Pouring) and 36298 (Residential and Small Commercial) based out of Reno, Nevada was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for substandard workmanship; failure to comply with a notice to correct; failure to include license number and monetary limit on a contract or proposal; failure to comply with the terms of a contract or written warranty; and failure to provide required disclosures. A permanent letter of reprimand was placed in licensee's file, licensee was fined $750, and assessed the cost of investigation.

The Nevada State Contractors Board is committed to protecting the public's health, safety, and welfare through licensing and regulation of the construction industry. Under Nevada Revised Statutes, a licensee is subject to disciplinary action by the Board for failure to comply with the requirements of the laws or regulations governing contractors. Violations may result in Board action against the contractor's license. The State Contractors Board has the power to regulate contractors and discipline licensees who violate NRS 624. Disciplinary action may consist of a fine of up to $10,000 per offense, order corrective action, suspension, revocation or other action.
