BOARD TAKES DISCIPLINARY ACTION AGAINST THREE LICENSED CONTRACTORS

(Reno, NV) – At its meeting on June 10, 2003 the Nevada State Contractors Board adjudicated cases against three (3) licensed contractors.

Skyhigh Builders, license number 30587 (Residential and Small Commercial) based out of Carson City, Nevada was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for substandard workmanship; failure to comply with a notice to correct; failure to obtain a required building permit; failure to provide required disclosures; acting in the capacity of a contractor beyond the scope of the license; bidding or contracting in excess of established license limit; failure to provide required Residential Recovery Fund disclosures. Licensee was fined $3500 and assessed the cost of investigation. The Board suspended the license of Skyhigh Builders until required work is completed.

Home Works, license number 31708 (Residential and Small Commercial) based out of Minden, Nevada was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for substandard workmanship. The licensee was ordered to complete work and assessed the cost of investigation.

Legends Studio, license number 43023 (Ornamental Iron) based out of Las Vegas, Nevada was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for abandonment of a construction project. The Board revoked the license of Legends Studio.

The Nevada State Contractors Board is committed to protecting the public's health, safety, and welfare through licensing and regulation of the construction industry. Under Nevada Revised Statutes, a licensee is subject to disciplinary action by the Board for failure to comply with the requirements of the laws or regulations governing contractors. Violations may result in Board action against the contractor's license. The State Contractors Board has the power to regulate contractors and discipline licensees who violate NRS 624. Disciplinary action may consist of a fine of up to $10,000 per offense, order corrective action, suspension, revocation or other action.

The Board will convene next in Henderson, NV on June 17, 2003.
