PRESS RELEASE

(Business Section)

Art Nadler has been named the new public information officer for the Nevada State Contractors Board. Nadler was formerly director of marketing/sales for RED, Inc. Communications. He has lived in Las Vegas since 1975 and previously was the business editor and a reporter for the Las Vegas Sun newspaper. As former Made in Nevada coordinator for the Nevada Commission on Economic Development, Nadler was instrumental in gaining public recognition for Nevada-based companies throughout the state. He also was a project manager and public relations/marketing director for the Management Assistance Partnership, the industrial extension program for the University and Community College System of Nevada (UCCSN.)

Nadler is a journalism graduate of Baker University, Baldwin City, Kan. He attended high school in North Tonawanda, N.Y.
