JULIO GATICA ADDED TO NSCB'S TEN MOST WANTED

Julio Gatica

Julio Gatica, aka Ricardo Gatica, has been added to the Nevada State Contractors Board's Ten Most Wanted. Gatica, dba Ricardo's Construction, has two felony warrants issued on him for obtaining money under false pretenses and two misdemeanor warrants for contracting without a license. The warrants have been issued by Las Vegas Justice Court.

Gatica allegedly enters into agreements to remodel houses, takes large sums of money for deposits and does little or no work. He allegedly convinced one homeowner to pull building permits to construct a guest house, started work and never completed it, after obtaining $16,000 from the homeowner. Gatica advertises in the El Mundo newspaper, allegedly targeting Hispanic homeowners.

The Special Investigations Unit of the Nevada State Contractors Board is hard at work tracking and citing offenders and informing the public of their rights and responsibilities. To assist in prosecuting illegal contracting, the Nevada State Contractors Board has launched an online "Ten Most Wanted." Individuals listed on the Ten Most Wanted website pages are those who have outstanding arrest warrants for unlicensed contracting activity. Contractors and members of the public can go online at www.nscb.state.nv.us and click “Ten Most Wanted” on the quick-link menu to review suspect’s profiles. The website includes contact numbers to provide information about the individuals profiled.

The person(s) listed on the Nevada State Contractors Board Ten Most Wanted website and in press releases have not been convicted of the charges and are presumed innocent.

Homeowners who use the services of a revoked or suspended contractor are not eligible for recovery of their damages through the Residential Recovery Fund. The NSCB urges the public to hire only licensed contractors in good standing with the Board.
