ARCHITECTURAL STONE DISCIPLINED BY CONTRACTORS BOARD

(Henderson, NV) – The Nevada State Contractors Board recently adjudicated a case involving one Southern Nevada contractor.

James Bryant Owens, dba Architectural Stone Imports, license number 69427 (Install Terazzo & Marble) based out of Las Vegas, NV, was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for substandard workmanship; failure to include the Residential Recovery Fund information on a contract or proposal; willful disregard of the building laws of the state; acting in the capacity of a contractor beyond the scope of the license; aiding or abetting an unlicensed person; failure to comply with the regulations of the Board; advertising projects of construction beyond the scope of the license; misrepresentation; and failure to notify the Board of a change in personnel or address in writing within 30 days of the change. The licensee was fined $5,100, ordered to pay the homeowner $22,284.40 in restitution and pay investigative costs. The license is suspended.

*The Business Review Program is one in which a contractor's business practices and regulatory compliance is examined by NSCB investigative staff. The program is a part of NSCB's proactive investigative efforts.

The Nevada State Contractors Board is committed to protecting the public's health, safety, and welfare through licensing and regulation of the construction industry. Under Nevada Revised Statutes, a licensee is subject to disciplinary action by the Board for failure to comply with the requirements of the laws or regulations governing contractors. Violations may result in Board action against the contractor's license. The State Contractors Board has the power to regulate contractors and discipline licensees who violate NRS 624. Disciplinary action may consist of a fine of up to $10,000 per offense, order corrective action, suspension, revocation or other action.
