SEVEN CONTRACTORS DISCIPLINED BY CONTRACTORS BOARD

HENDERSON and RENO, Nev. – At its meetings on Nov. 6, 13, and 18, the Nevada State Contractors Board took action against several licensed contractors for violations of Nevada Revised Statutes Chapter 624.

A.A.C.A., LLC, dba Mr. Rooter Plumbing, license numbers 73696 (plumbing), based out of Las Vegas, Nev., was found in violation for committing a fraudulent or deceitful act, failure to include the Residential Recovery Fund information on a contract or proposal, willful disregard of the state's building laws, failure to comply with a written request by the Board, failure to exercise proper authority and supervision of employees, and failure to establish financial responsibility in a timely manner. The licensee was fined $5,600 and assessed investigative costs. The license will be subject to suspension if fines and costs are not paid within the time ordered by the Hearing Officer.

Around the Clock, Inc., license numbers 63227 (air conditioning) and 69440 (plumbing), based out of Las Vegas, Nev., was found in violation for willful disregard of the state's building laws and failure to establish financial responsibility. The licenses were suspended pending payment of $4,500 in fines plus investigative costs and submission of a current financial statement.

Spring Valley Electric, LLC, dba High Tech Electric, license numbers 52141 (electrical contracting), based out of Las Vegas, Nev., was found in violation for willful disregard of the state's safety or labor laws and failure to establish financial responsibility. The license will be placed on Inactive status pending payment of a $500 fine, investigative costs, and submission of a current financial statement.

Guadalupe Yaneth Castaneda, dba Rainbow Pool Plastering, license number 74187 (plastering), based out of Las Vegas, Nev., was found in violation for acting in the capacity of a contractor beyond the scope of the license, failure to notify the Board of a change in personnel or address within 30 days of the change, and failure to establish financial responsibility. The licensee was fined $600 and ordered to pay investigative costs. The license was suspended pending submission of a current financial statement and payment of fines and costs.

Double AA Contracting, Inc., license number 34647 (concrete contracting), based out of Las Vegas, Nev., was found in violation for failure to establish financial responsibility and failure to respond to a written request from the Board. The license was revoked.

Intrepid Metal Works, Inc., license number 75864 (steel reinforcing and erection), based out of Las Vegas, Nev., was found in violation for willful disregard of the state's industrial insurance laws and failure to comply with a written request by the Board. The license was suspended for 90 days and is subject to revocation if fines of $1,500 and assessed investigative costs are not paid.

Judson Enterprises, Inc., dba K Designers, license number 38900 (carpentry), 71229 (glass and glazing), 73114 (awnings and louvres), and 73293 (painting), based out of Gold River, Calif., was found in violation for failure to establish financial responsibility. The licensee was fined $500, assessed investigative costs, and the license limits were reduced to $45,000. All licenses were suspended and will be subject to revocation if a current financial statement and payment of fines and fees is not received within 30 days.

The Nevada State Contractors Board is committed to protecting the public's health, safety, and welfare through licensing and regulation of the construction industry. Under Nevada Revised Statutes, a licensee is subject to disciplinary action by the Board for failure to comply with the requirements of the laws or regulations governing contractors. Violations may result in Board action against the contractor's license. The State Contractors Board has the power to regulate contractors and discipline licensees who violate NRS 624. Disciplinary action may consist of a fine of up to $10,000 per offense, order corrective action, suspension, revocation or other action.
