BOARD DISCIPLINES CONTRACTORS AT OCTOBER HEARINGS

RENO and HENDERSON, Nev. – The Nevada State Contractors Board took action against several licensed contractors for violations of Nevada Revised Statutes Chapter 624 during its October hearings in Reno and Henderson.

D&S Electric, Inc., license number 58543 (electrical wiring), based out of Sparks, Nev., was found in violation for lending the license to an unauthorized individual who is not on the license, failure to include the company name or license number on an advertisement, failure to notify the Board of a change in address or personnel within 30 days of the change, and failure to establish financial responsibility. The license was revoked. Licensee was fined $2,000 and assessed investigative costs.

Maraton Construction, LLC, license number 78359 (residential and small commercial), based out of North Las Vegas, Nev., was suspended pending the hearing, which was continued to November 4.

Alpha 1 Construction, license number 49793 (general building), based out of Las Vegas, Nev., was found in violation for failure to pay any money due for any materials or services rendered and failure to establish financial responsibility. The license was revoked. Licensee was fined $13,000 and assessed investigative costs.

ERUS Builders, LLC, license number 78524 (residential and small commercial), based out of Phoenix, Ariz., was found in violation for misuse of a license, failure to include the monetary license limit or license number on a contract or proposal, acting in the capacity of a contractor beyond the scope of the license, and aiding and abetting an unlicensed person. Licensee was fined $4,000, assessed investigative costs and required to submit a current financial statement and bank verification within 30 days in order to determine if the current license limit is supportable.

A.R.A. Heating and Air Conditioning, Inc., license number 40233A (refrigeration and air conditioning), based out of North Las Vegas, Nev., was found in violation for willful failure to pay any money due for any materials or services rendered, failure to establish financial responsibility, and willful disregard of the state's building laws. The license was revoked. Licensee was fined $2,500 and assessed investigative costs.

Bormann Construction, Ltd., license number 56998 (residential and small commercial), based out of Las Vegas, Nev., was found in violation for abandonment of a construction project, diversion of funds, failure to include the license number or monetary limit on a contract or proposal, failure to respond to a written request from the Board, failure to notify the Board of a change in address or personnel within 30 days and failure to establish financial responsibility. The license was revoked. Licensee was fined $7,800 and assessed investigative costs.

The Nevada State Contractors Board is committed to protecting the public's health, safety, and welfare through licensing and regulation of the construction industry. Under Nevada Revised Statutes, a licensee is subject to disciplinary action by the Board for failure to comply with the requirements of the laws or regulations governing contractors. Violations may result in Board action against the contractor's license. The State Contractors Board has the power to regulate contractors and discipline licensees who violate
