CONTRACTORS BOARD DISCIPLINES LICENSEES

RENO and HENDERSON, Nev. – The Nevada State Contractors Board took action against several licensed contractors for violations of Nevada Revised Statutes Chapter 624 during its August hearings in Reno and Henderson.

Esprit Construction, license number 47286 (residential and small commercial), based out of Salt Lake City, Utah, was found in violation for bidding in excess of the monetary limit placed on the license, entering into a contract with an unlicensed person, conspiring with an unlicensed person to perform an unauthorized act, acting as an agent, aiding and abetting an unlicensed person, and failure to establish financial responsibility. Licensee was fined $2,200 and assessed investigative costs.

Alternative Drilling Company, LLC, license number 73955 (drill wells, install pumps, pressure tan), based out of Spring Creek, NV had its license placed on probation and may not take on any new work pending review of charges and submission of a current financial statement.

Complete Bath Remodeling of Las Vegas, LLC, dba 5 Day Kitchens of Las Vegas, license number 78859 (finish carpentry) based out of Las Vegas, NV, was found in violation for failure to establish financial responsibility. Licensee was fined $500, assessed investigative costs, and ordered to pay restitution. The license was voluntarily surrendered.

Triple R Construction, LLC, license number 74770 (residential and small commercial), based out of Las Vegas, NV, was found in violation for willful disregard of the state’s building laws. Licensee was fined $500 and assessed investigative costs.

Bruce Douglas Spangrud, dba Galaxy Outdoor, license number 73383 (carpentry), based out of Las Vegas, NV, was found in violation for failure to establish financial responsibility, contracting beyond the scope of the license, and bidding in excess of the monetary limit placed on the license. Licensee was fined $4,500 and assessed investigative costs. A current financial statement that supports the monetary limit must be submitted to the Board within 60 days of the hearing date or the license will be suspended.

Optica Network Technologies, LLC, license number 76712 (low-voltage), based out of Cambridge, Neb., was found in violation for failure to establish financial responsibility and failure to notify the board of change in address or personnel. The license was revoked. Licensee was fined $6,000 and assessed investigative costs.

The Nevada State Contractors Board is committed to protecting the public’s health, safety, and welfare through licensing and regulation of the construction industry. Under Nevada Revised Statutes, a licensee is subject to disciplinary action by the Board for failure to comply with the requirements of the laws or regulations governing contractors. Violations may result in Board action against the contractor’s license. The State Contractors Board has the power to regulate contractors and discipline licensees who violate NRS 624. Disciplinary action may consist of a fine of up to $10,000 per offense, order corrective action, suspension, revocation or other action.
