CONTRACTORS BOARD DISCIPLINES LICENSEES

RENO and HENDERSON, Nev. – The Nevada State Contractors Board took action against several licensed contractors for violations of Nevada Revised Statutes Chapter 624 during its November hearings in Reno and Henderson.

Edward Monroe Olson, dba B.O.A. Construction, license number 69631 (carpentry), based out of Boulder City, Nev., was found in violation for disregard of the state's building laws, failure to establish financial responsibility, failure to include the license number or monetary limit on a bid or contract, failure to include Residential Recovery Fund information in a bid or contract, contracting beyond the scope of the license, bidding in excess of the license's monetary limit, substandard workmanship, failure to respond to and comply with a request from the Board. The license was revoked. Licensee was fined $4,200 and assessed investigative costs.

Whiteford Grading and Paving, Inc., license number 69595 (highways, sealing and striping impermeable paving, recycling asphalt, excavating, grading, trenching and surfacing, wrecking buildings, paving streets, driveways and parking lots), based out of North Las Vegas, Nev., was found in violation for disregard of the state's building laws, failure to pay for materials or services, failure to establish financial responsibility, failure to comply with the provisions of the Board, committing a fraudulent or deceitful act, failure to cooperate in an investigation and failure to comply with a request for information. The license was suspended. Licensee was fined $6,500 and assessed investigative costs.

A&T Construction, LLC, dba A&T Construction and Hospitality, license numbers 79275 (finishing floors), 79276 (painting and decorating), 79277 (carpentry) and 79278 (tiling) and Hotel Renovations, LLC, license numbers 79711 (finishing floors), 79712 (carpentry), 79713 (painting and decorating) and 79714 (tiling), based out of Las Vegas, Nev., were found in violation for failure to establish financial responsibility, failure to notify the Board of a change in address or personnel and failure to comply with a request from the Board. The licenses were revoked. Licensees were fined $1,750 and assessed investigative costs.

Ability Heating and Air, Inc., license number 78959 (refrigeration and air conditioning), based out of Las Vegas, Nev., was found in violation for failure to establish financial responsibility, failure to keep in force a bond or cash deposit, failure to notify the Board of a change in address or personnel and contracting on a suspended or revoked license. The license was revoked. Licensee was fined $4,000 and assessed investigative costs.

The Nevada State Contractors Board is committed to protecting the public's health, safety, and welfare through licensing and regulation of the construction industry. Under Nevada Revised Statutes, a licensee is subject to disciplinary action by the Board for failure to comply with the requirements of the laws or regulations governing contractors. Violations may result in Board action against the contractor's license. The State Contractors Board has the power to regulate contractors and discipline licensees who violate NRS 624.

Disciplinary action may consist of a fine of up to $10,000 per offense, order corrective action, suspension, revocation or other action.
