The Nevada State Contractors Board is offering free “New License Application Orientation” workshops in Reno and Henderson in February to help those seeking a contractor’s license with the application process covering state law and trade testing requirements and bond requirements. Applicants are advised on how to prepare for both tests and how to properly submit an application to the Board.

Workshops will be at the Board’s offices: 9670 Gateway Drive, Suite 100, Reno from 10 a.m. to noon, Feb. 8; and at 2310 Corporate Circle, Suite 200, Henderson from 9 to 11 a.m., Feb. 21.
