CONTRACTORS BOARD MOURNS LOSS OF FORMER BOARD MEMBER NAT HODGSON

LAS VEGAS and RENO, NEV. – The Nevada State Contractors Board joins the construction industry and members of the community in mourning the loss of former board member Nat Hodgson III, who passed away on October 7, 2023, at the age of 59, leaving behind a legacy of dedication and service.

“Nat was a man of great integrity and enthusiasm with a strong passion to serve all who crossed his path. The absence of his contributions and advocacy will be felt across the construction industry for years to come,” shares NSCB Executive Officer Margi Grein. “Beyond his professional attributes, it is the loss of Nat’s camaraderie, inviting and humorous personality, and dedication to promoting and upholding consumer protection initiatives that are felt most. The Board extends its deepest condolences to Nat’s family, friends, and colleagues during this difficult time.”

Nat Hodgson served as a member of the Nevada State Contractors Board from 2008 to 2012, during which time he made significant contributions to the industry. His commitment to upholding the highest standards of professionalism and ethics earned him the respect and admiration of his peers. Nat's expertise and insights were invaluable in shaping policies and regulations that safeguarded both the interests of the construction industry and the consumers it serves.

In addition to his role on the Nevada State Contractors Board, Nat Hodgson also served as a committee member on the Residential Recovery Fund. His involvement in this capacity further demonstrated his unwavering commitment to protecting consumers and ensuring their rights were upheld. Nat's dedication to consumer protection was evident in every aspect of his work, and his contributions to the industry will be sorely missed.

One of Nat's most significant roles was serving as the Executive Director of the Southern Nevada Home Builders Association. In this position, he played a pivotal role in advancing the interests of the construction industry in Southern Nevada and throughout the state. Nat's leadership and vision helped shape the industry, and his impact will be felt for years to come.

Nat Hodgson's collaboration with the Nevada State Contractors Board on issues of mutual concern was instrumental in fostering a strong and harmonious relationship between the industry and regulatory authorities. His ability to bridge the gap between these two entities ensured that the interests of both the construction industry and the consumers were effectively represented.

In honor of Nat Hodgson's memory, we encourage all industry professionals to continue his legacy of advocating for consumer protection and upholding the highest standards of professionalism. Let us remember him as a leader, a mentor, and a champion for the construction industry.

Services for Nat Hodgson will be communicated as soon as they become available. Please join us as we collectively mourn the loss of a remarkable individual.
